(2) The calculation is to be made on the pay on 1st July of each year, as entered in the Establishment Schedules taking into consideration the increment or promotion that may accrue on that date.

(3) The gratuity shall be calculated on the net qualifying service only, leaving out all leave without allowances and excess leave not qualifying under Articles 276 and 280, Mysore Service Regulations, and such excess period being deducted from the total service, proceeding backwards from the date of termination of service, similarly, when the total qualifying service is more than 30 years, the excess period to be ignored will be at the beginning of the service, the gratuity being calculated backwards from the date of termination of appointment.

(4) The application in the case of a pensionable officer dying before retirement, will be in the same form as that for pension with necessary changes in the headings containing all the details required for verification of services and accompanied by all the records required for the pension application and by a statement prescribed in Rule 8 of the rules issued under Government Order dated 1st—3rd April 1929.

(5) All such applications will be accompanied by a detailed statement in the following form arriving at the total amount of Compassionate Gratuity claimed.

Year	Pay on 1st July	Total number of years of qualifying service	Total amount of compassionate gratuity claimed.
